

St Matthew's School Scholarship Application Form

St Matthew's School offers families in the community an opportunity to enrol at our school through a Scholarship Program which provides substantial financial benefit to support families who desire a Catholic Education for their children.

These scholarships are either full or partial scholarships open for current and prospective students from Kindergarten to Year 2.

Criteria:

- Applicants should be supportive members of St Matthew's School Community and be prepared to abide by the school ethos and policies.
- Applicants must be able to demonstrate the need for financial support.

If successful in your application, the scholarship will be available for your child throughout their school years at St Matthew's Primary School.

To ensure continuation of the scholarship benefit, families must continue to be supportive members of the school community.

To apply for this Scholarship at St Matthew's School, please ensure that you have completed all sections of the application and have attached copies of the documents requested below.

Application for Admission Checklist:

- Application Form for St Matthew's School Scholarship
- St Matthew's School Application for Enrolment Form
- Copy of Immunisation records
- Parish Priest Reference (if applicable)
- Certified copy of Full Birth Certificate/Visa Information (if applicable)
- Copy of Baptismal Certificate (If applicable)

Process:

- St Matthew's School will confirm in writing receipt of your completed application.
- An interview with the Principal of St Matthew's School will be arranged for Parents/Guardians and the student for shortlisted applicants.
- All applicants will receive a letter from the Principal indicating the results of the application.
